Escape the city and embrace the serene lifestyle in the heart of Hawker! This timber framed transportable three-bedroom residence at 5 Heysen Avenue is your perfect gateway to the outback, now available in the midst of a regional housing shortage. Step inside and be greeted by an open living & dining room, ideal for family gatherings. With excellent air conditioning and cozy combustion heating, you'll be comfortable year-round. The shady verandahs offer a peaceful retreat, and the galley-style kitchen boasts ample storage for your culinary adventures. This home even features a small solar panel system, ensuring you save on energy costs. With a single garage and carport, you'll have space for your vehicles and more. Hawker, just over an hour from Port Augusta, is the gateway to the breathtaking Wilpena Pound. Don't miss this rare opportunity to secure your piece of paradise in a town where homes are in high demand. Act now! Call us today to schedule your private viewing.
