Bright open spaces, lineal timber exterior, raked ceilings and minimalism, all contribute to terms that describe this mid-20th century home which has been painstakingly renovated and is ready to move straight into. From its hardwood timber floors, to the contrast of internal finishes, the property offers the unique blend of family living with excellent bedroom and living accommodation, combined with a designer element that personifies 'cool', and is sure to capture the interest of those seeking something beyond the norm. Talking to buyers from outside of Geelong, Herne Hill has always been a solid residential area, however proceeding the Fyansford development it's flourished into a prime residential hub, on the Newtown fringe, recognised for great schools and amenities, and is only a short drive to the Geelong / Melbourne ring road, ideal for any commuter. • 4 Spacious bedrooms • 2 Light filled living areas • Stunning central bathroom • Expansive open lounge, kitchen and dining room • Off-street parking for multiple cars with large double carport • Extras include; gas central heating, split system cooling, solar and hardwood timber floors.
