Superbly presented and nestled away in a peaceful court location on 676m², the entrance to this amazing home is both intriguing and inviting. A large mound of lush green ferns and bright flora adds colour and contrast behind a secure gate that leads to the spacious driveway and footpath leading you to the secluded and private front entry, giving you a peaceful feeling of being a world away from all the hustle and bustle. Inside, be graced by soaring vaulted ceilings that create an abundance of space with large picture windows illuminating and setting the scene for what is a beautiful family home. The elegant formal lounge is complete with a roaring open fireplace impeccably decorated providing a wonderful backdrop for pure enjoyment and relaxation. The kitchen is well appointed with a complement of stainless-steel appliances which is contrasted by creamy cabinetry. Informal meals and an expansive living area offers space, comfort and wow to this amazing property as it spills out to a large covered outdoor entertaining area making for a seamless blend of indoor-outdoor living, entertaining guests all year round with the added bonus of views to the neat and tidy rear yard. The home continues to amaze as you step through to the grand master bedroom with your own designer walk in robe and fashionably large ensuite with a further two separate bedrooms serviced by a central luxurious bathroom with floor to ceiling porcelain tiles and resort style vanity, large shower and a striking free-standing bath. Further features include plenty of storage and linen cupboards, climate control throughout with gas ducted heating and two split system coolers and evaporative cooling, large laundry, double remote garage and the privacy and luxury of a front outdoor courtyard and another sundrenched deck. All this within close proximity to the ever popular Stud Park Shopping precinct, local schools and public transport with Monash and Eastlink freeway at your doorstep connecting city or coast. There is much to love about this wonderful home, be quick an inspection is a must! Proudly marketed by Barry Plant Rowville - 9753 2828
