Sitting proudly in arguably one of Devonport's most sought-after locations, this large family home was master built in 1987 with the current owners reluctantly deciding to down size. Perched on a huge 852m² (approx.) block, this beautiful family home is large enough for everyone, all of the kids, the pets, and Mum/Dad with multiple living spaces to spread out. The location offers unparalleled lifestyle living with stunning ocean & coastline views as far as the eyes can see. Fantastic walking pathways that take you for kilometres through the gorgeous Don Reserve to the east and to the west bluff beach, Victoria Parade, the city centre and beyond. Summertime beach days with the kids is going to be a real draw card with Coles Beach literally 5-minutes (approx.) walk down the road. The amazing home is perfectly laid out over 2 levels. Renovated throughout, on the entry level, you will find the massive 4 car plus garage with a large storage cupboard with sliding doors, the separate workshop and gym, fantastic rumpus room with a heat pump, plus the 4th bedroom/office. Upstairs the home features large sunny living areas which include the lounge & family rooms, making it 3 living areas in total! The views from the upstairs area of the home are simply amazing! The huge gourmet kitchen is the ultimate chef's delight, complete with granite transformation tops, soft close drawers, and a corner pantry. A further 3 bedrooms are on the top storey, all with built-in robes and the master bedroom featuring an ensuite with a walk-in shower. The large main bathroom with separate bath & shower, laundry and a large sunroom off the laundry area can be found on this level also. Other Features Include:

- Verandas off the lounge + master bedroom with incredible views
- All windows are double glazed
- Ducted vacuum system
- Under floor heating in both bathrooms
- Ducted gas heating and heat pump on upper level
