

5 Joanna Close, Charlestown, NSW 2290

Sold House

Friday, 5 April 2024

5 Joanna Close, Charlestown, NSW 2290

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Darren Penn
0424740463

Contact agent

If you have been searching for a low maintenance home in a private location, this could be the one for you. Designed with easy care living in mind and ideal to downsize to, this three bedroom, two bathroom home is located in popular development in a spacious three bedroom layout with two good sized living spaces plus studio and converted garage to create more space. The home boasts three generous bedrooms, all with built-ins, plus an ensuite to the master bedroom. The main living space is in a generous L-Shape configuration with plenty of room for dining, relaxing and entertaining that accesses the Queenslander room and studio. Other property features include • Quiet low maintenance design • Split system air conditioning • All electric kitchen • Generous bedrooms all with robes • Ceiling fans • Converted garage for extra storage space • Carport and protected porch for all weather entry To view this lovely home look out for scheduled inspection times or call the agent for more information. • Rental: $650-$680 per week approx • Council Rates: 472.90 per quarter approx Charlestown, nestled in the heart of Newcastle, is a bustling suburb offering a perfect blend of urban convenience and natural beauty. Its modern shopping centers, diverse dining options, and proximity to picturesque Lake Macquarie make it a desirable destination for residents and visitors alike, embodying contemporary suburban living.