Adam Buchert and his team have a reputation for bringing beautiful homes to market in Richmond and Hobartville and 5 Katrina Close is just that... Nestled in one of the nicest cul de sacs in Hobartville surrounded by beautiful homes on a generous 683 square meter parcel of land sits this fully renovated 3 bedroom masterpiece. No stone has been left unturned in this stunning renovation. The owners have painstakingly restored this classic redbrick 1960's home into a modern masterpiece, with beautifully polished floors, brand new bathroom with separate toilet and a sophisticated light filled kitchen that has size and space that is rare in new builds.. The living spaces are large and open and you can't help but be taken by the natural light that filters through the large windows in every room. Outside there are manicured gardens and lawns the roof has been carefully restored and there's a cute studio, ideal for hobbies or noisy teens as well as a generous shed for mowers and tools .. There is secure parking for two cars under the large carport and don't forget the amazing sunroom off the kitchen for reading the paper with a cup of coffee... The location is fantastic just a short walk to the shops, parks, pool, pubs, schools and restaurants and the cul de sac means no through traffic, perfect for a young family.. So why not contact Adam and his team today to arrange your inspection..
