Fringed by a decked veranda laced with fretwork, this renovated Victorian stunner offers private spacious proportions and an incomparable location. Showcasing decorative flourishes with wide hallway arches, corbels and dramatic 4m plus high ceilings with roses. Quietly set in its own character filled street, just metres walk to bars, the MCG, Rod Laver Arena, Yarra Park, Richmond Station and Swan Street cafes. Streamed with natural light, the home's modern proportions comprise two elegant bedrooms with sky high ceilings; master with wall to wall built-in robes. Serviced by a separately placed bathroom with gorgeous black and white palette, encompassing rainfall shower-over bath fitted with stylish matte tapware. An impressive living and dining/optional study zone with split system and chic pendant lighting provides a flexible space to host guests before you go out for a concert or to watch a game of football/rugby/soccer/tennis at one of the nearby stadiums. Flowing down to a brightly devised kitchen/meals area with new freestanding gas cooker and ample cabinetry storage. Linked to an intimate courtyard, and further offering plush carpet, smart window furnishings, heating and laundry facilities. Showcasing incredible inner city appeal, ideally matched to a professional or downsizing couple with excellent investment prospects. Sold with vacant possession. Hurry! Homes near Richmond Hill and Yarra Park are keenly pursued.
