All your house-hunting dreams come true in this subtly renovated 4-bedroom home, primed for first-time buyers, growing families and downsizers looking for easy alfresco living and a delightful courtyardside position. A private entry steps into a well-zoned interior flourishing with space over polished hardwood floors, showcasing two separate living zones and updated appliances to its significant kitchen. All the space needed for cosy family get-togethers and large-scale entertaining is here, enjoying a simple shift out to its covered terrace and impressive pittosporum-edged yard. The master bedroom is wonderfully equipped with a walk-in robe and a stunning renovated ensuite, matched by the family bathroom closely neighbouring three remaining bedrooms at the rear. Additional features include split-system air conditioning, ducted heating, ceiling fans, LED downlights, quality blinds, and a double garage. Positioned for easy living, it sits mere metres from Langwarrin South shops, buses, Langwarrin Primary and Elisabeth Murdoch College, with Langwarrin Flora and Fauna Reserve, St Jude's Primary, Karingal Hub and Mornington Peninsula Freeway all close by.
