With a focus on comfort, this impeccably presented residence is where unforgettable family memories are waiting to be made. Crafted in 2007 by WA's most renowned builder, Dale Alcock Homes, this 271 sqm home offers easy-care living without compromising on comfort. As you step through the double entry doors that widely open to your beautiful home, you'll immediately feel the warmth and welcome that fills every corner. Throughout the four bedrooms and two bathrooms, this home exudes quality and attention to detail. The master bedroom boasts his and hers walk-in robes and a spacious ensuite with a shower, dual vanity sinks and an enclosed toilet. Meanwhile, the additional bedrooms provide ample space for the entire family, and the spacious study area (or 5th bedroom) offers a place for focus and creativity, whether you're working from home or working on school projects. The heart of this home is embodied by the open-plan kitchen, living and dining area, where laughter and conversation flow effortlessly. The kitchen lights a flame under the home chef, featuring a stainless steel Smeg 900mm freestanding oven, a Smeg 600mm built-in oven and a dishwasher for added convenience. For movie dates with loved ones or exciting game nights with friends, the huge home theatre is the perfect spot. Outside, the 540 sqm land offers great outdoor space, providing plenty of room to live and entertain. Relax under the massive alfresco and take advantage of the two garden sheds for storage. To the front lies the double garage with internal access to the kitchen, which makes bringing groceries from your car to your home a breeze. With ducted air conditioning for all-year comfort and an alarm system for added peace of mind, this home ensures an undeniably comfortable and secure environment.
