Looking for a new home near the beach? Look no further! This stunning brick two bedroom home is located only approximately 300m from the ocean and is available at a fantastic price. Whether you're looking for a permanent residence or a cosy holiday home, this property offers great potential to add value and make it your own. Inside, the high raked ceilings and functional kitchen that overlooks the living and dining area create a spacious and welcoming atmosphere. The home also features a wood fire heater and R/C split system air-conditioning, making it perfect for year-round comfort. The two bedrooms come equipped with built-in cabinetry, and the large bathroom and laundry are both conveniently located. The back verandah provides a perfect spot for relaxing while the children play in the generous backyard. And with three garden sheds, you'll never run out of space for storage. What's more, this blank canvas is a fantastic opportunity for first-time homebuyers or investors. Located only 100m from schools and shopping centers and just two streets away from the beach, this property is highly sought after. Don't wait to secure your new home - arrange an inspection today!
