Forthcoming Auction

An immensely appealing home, this classic old-school bungalow is immediately inviting and offers buyers an excellent opportunity to secure a spacious brick property on a great-sized block of land. It is presented in good solid condition with well-proportioned interiors, a deep back garden and lots of future potential to add even more value through a creative upgrade, redesign or rebuild. The location is well-known for its lifestyle appeal and enjoys easy access to all of Concord's shops, cafes and bus transport, with a choice of quality schools and the train station at North Strathfield close by. Generous interiors feature separate lounge, dining and casual living areas. Well-presented throughout with high ceilings and lots of period details. Three double bedrooms, two bathrooms and up fully equipped kitchen. A private grassed garden, covered BBQ space and veggie patches. Charming street presence with driveway access through to a lock-up garage. A great opportunity to acquire a classic home and renovate to suit. Excellent scope for an update, renovation or a fresh start (STCA). Land dimensions are 13.1m x 43.58m = 569.1sqm
