Graced with grand proportions, high ceilings and glorious views, this superbly positioned and solidly built double-storey brick residence enjoys court serenity and a private garden setting close to Keilor Village. First time offered, this much cherished home also offers immediate comfort and convenience, whilst presenting future opportunities for contemporary enhancement (subject to relevant approvals). Be inspired by pristine original interiors, comprising elegant leadlight entrance hall featuring a sweeping staircase leading to a balcony for enjoying scenic vistas. Formal lounge, dining room with rosettes, large living room and versatile home office with solid fuel fireplace and separate side access, ideal for home-based businesses. Opening to an undercover outdoor zone set amidst private gardens. Warmed by abundant timber cabinetry, the family sized kitchen/meals include Smeg cooktop, stainless steel wall oven and pantry. Five bedrooms, four with built-in-robos, are well-served by classic bathroom, ensuite, powder room and laundry with shower. The master enjoys adjoining retreat. Offers ducted heating, cooling, electric shutters, double carport, double garage with workshop/storage space and rear access. Near parks, shops, cafés, Overnewton College, Keilor Downs Secondary College (zone) and freeways.
