This cosy two-bedroom home in the charming coastal town of Jan Juc offers a perfect opportunity to purchase in a serene neighbourhood; the property is a great fit for small families, couples, or professionals seeking a peaceful retreat or potential new home site STCA. As you step into the home, you are greeted by an open-plan living and dining area complemented by large windows inviting ample natural light, creating a bright and airy ambience. The house has two bedrooms; the front has built-in wardrobes, and the second has an ensuite. Neutral colour schemes and polished boards contribute to the overall tranquil atmosphere. The kitchen, a clear heart of this home, offers stainless steel appliances and a generous countertop area. To complete the package, the property includes a single carport with additional room for storage provided by a steel workshop and a separate storage shed. Located just a stone's throw away from Jan Juc's shops and Cafes, a short walk can take you to the Bob Pettitt Reserve. If you want to enjoy the water you can swim or surf from the nearby Winki Pop and Half Moon Bay beaches. Don't miss your chance to settle in this peaceful beachside town.
