Whether you're after the perfect blank slate to build your dream home or you're looking to create a new, low-maintenance investment property (STCA) in a sought-after location, there will be no shortage of buyers eager to secure this prized parcel of land. This vacant and level lot boasts 825sqm (approx.) of space and a prime position along a quiet no-through road making it an exciting opportunity that's bursting with potential. Imagine bright and open living areas with flawless finishes throughout and an open floorplan that embraces an effortless indoor-outdoor flow (STCA). The generous block size allows for a sprawling yard that the kids and avid green thumb are sure to love while the show-stopping Mount Wellington views will provide the perfect backdrop to your new life of leisure. Full services are on site and the land is already partially fenced meaning you really can start planning your new home from day one. Just as impressive as the lot itself is the desirable Kingston location only a short walk from a host of nearby services and essential amenities. Handy local bus stops will make for an easy commute and you're also so close to the Kingston Beach Golf Club for a day spent strolling the fairways. Those with younger children will love being within easy reach of a selection of renowned schools, including Kingston Primary School and Kingston High School, and Kingston Beach itself is only minutes away where you can soak up the sunshine by the water's edge. Adding to the appeal of 5 Old Farmhouse Court is the close proximity to the bustling Channel Court Shopping Centre and the easy links to the vibrant centre of Hobart.
