An oasis of calm in a prized pocket of Keysborough, this charming family home is nestled on a whisper-quiet court, within five minutes of Parkmore and popular zoned schools. Offering endless potential for astute buyers, the property is perfect for savvy investors, first homebuyers and keen renovators, combining solid bones with a generous 539sqm block (approx). Instantly captivating, the elegant brick facade is framed by a lush palm and flourishing native plants, revealing a welcoming front verandah for greeting guests in style. Opening with gentle tones and exquisite hardwood floors, the spacious interiors are awash with natural light, presenting a comfortable living/dining room with feature bay windows, split-system air conditioning and a wonderfully soothing ambiance. The tiled meal zone merges with ease, overlooking the well-appointed kitchen with its ample storage and quality appliances, while the nearby covered patio encourages effortless entertaining all year round. There's also an easy-care backyard with a grassed area for the kids' trampoline, alongside access to the air-conditioned garden studio which boasts a large storage area and generous proportions for versatile use. Completing the picture, the home's three robed bedrooms set the stage for a restful night's sleep, sharing the neat fully tiled bathroom with its bath, separate shower and standalone w/c. Outside, the double carport shelters the cars from the elements, while there's also plentiful additional parking to the large driveway. Life in this coveted enclave makes the day-to-day routine that little bit easier, placing its new family within a short walk of Chandler Park Primary School and Keysborough Secondary College, while surrounded by great parks including Frederick Wachter Reserve. The proximity to Parkmore is ideal for the big weekly shop, plus there's easy access to Yarraman Station and the Eastlink for city commuters. Reap the benefits of classic comfort, scope to personalise and prime convenience with this enviably placed home. Secure your viewing today!
