Escape to tranquillity in this large family home nestled in the serene surroundings overlooking picturesque farmland, this residence offers the perfect blend of functional living and peaceful rural charm. Comprising four generous bedrooms, plus an open study area, the home also boasts three distinct living zones, including a cosy front lounge room, an inviting rumpus room complete with a built-in bar, and a spacious upstairs retreat. The heart of the home, an updated kitchen with sleek stone benchtops, seamlessly connects to the centrally located dining room. Outdoor living is taken to the next level with a large, fully enclosed alfresco area featuring beautiful merbau decking. Imagine hosting gatherings or simply relaxing in this superb space, no matter the season. The home also includes two modernized bathrooms and an additional powder room upstairs, ensuring convenience and comfort for the whole family. For added convenience, the home is equipped with split system heating and cooling, ceiling fans, and a ducted vacuum system. Additionally, the 14 panel solar electricity system helps keep running costs down. Situated on a corner block, this property offers relaxed views over lush green pastures, enhancing the sense of peace and space. Practicality is not overlooked with an oversized double garage and a large boat/caravan port in the rear yard, providing ample parking and storage for all your vehicles and weekend toys.
