Retreat to the peace and privacy of this freestanding weatherboard cottage in a tranquil lane at the edge of Queen Street village. The picturesque setting reminiscent of a London mews amplifies the enchantment of this house designed around a sunny garden courtyard. Much admired for its pretty façade with traditional front verandah, the sunlit two-level home is updated for contemporary living with an air-conditioned bedroom and bathroom on each level. Stroll around the corner to village cafes, shops, dining and 450m to Centennial Park. DA approved to expand the internal size. Fresh white interiors, indoor-outdoor flow. Living & dining open to sunny courtyard. Decorative fireplace, Kauri floorboards. Open-plan kitchen, stainless steel dishwasher. Main bedroom with bathroom and ensuite. 2nd bedroom with large mirrored bathroom. 2 bathrooms, ensuite with bath/shower. Laundry facilities in downstairs bathroom. Plantation shutters, air-con in bedrooms. North courtyard, wisteria-framed pergola.
