Welcome to 5 Pink Street, Violet Town. This charming cottage has been tastefully upgraded, providing modern convenience and comfort, all the while maintaining its original warmth and character. With 3 bedrooms, updated bathroom and ensuite, and two generous living spaces, there is plenty of space for the whole family. The property also boasts a galley style kitchen, opening onto the large, light filled dining space, with wood fire heating and refrigerated split system units throughout. Situated on a generous 1151 sqm land area, the backyard is perfect for children to play or for hosting BBQs with friends and family in the tranquil garden setting. There is also a large 6x12m shed (approx) equipped with concrete floor and power, and an undercover carport space for your convenience. The architecture of this property is truly unique and adds to its character. The location is also ideal, with easy access to nearby amenities and facilities. Whether you're looking for a cozy cottage or a spacious family home, this property has it all. Don't miss out on the opportunity to make this house your new home, call Ray White Benalla today.
