Nestled on 239m² (approx), with dual street frontages, this period home is ripe and ready for the new owner to make it their own. Perfectly located a stone's throw from Geelong's most popular shopping and dining strips which is Pakington Street as well as some of Geelong's most reputable Schools, Public Transport, the Geelong CBD and stunning Waterfront, making this a very convenient and cosmopolitan location. Oozing charm and street appeal, most of the hard work has already been done for you. Certified asbestos free, insulated and wrapped, reroofed, rewired, replumbed and a renewed bay window will put you streets ahead of other inferior homes on the market. Showcasing high ceilings, solid timber flooring and timber dado will make restoring this charming home a breeze. Comprised of three bedrooms with the flexibility of another living area, depending on your family dynamics, a living/dining area adjacent to the kitchen that has been updated and features a freestanding oven and electric cooktop. A central bathroom, separate toilet, internal laundry and sunroom round out the inside of this home. Other notable features include, dual street frontage, gas heating, large garden shed and low maintenance gardens. Don't miss your opportunity to inspect this potential packed, inner city property, ready for you to make it your own.
