A classic single front Victorian terrace just waiting for your vision, this two bedroom home resides in a superb central position near an impressive host of amenities. With signature high ceilings and a traditional hallway, the residence begins with two double bedrooms before opening into a kitchen and meals domain, then progressing to a living room. A low maintenance rear courtyard can be adapted to suit your desires, and there's also a garage, with generous storage space, benefitting from access to a rear right of way. Situated to make a rewarding future lifestyle entirely possible, it's eager for the creativity of an inspired buyer. An outstanding opportunity to shape your dream home (subject to relevant approvals), this embodiment of potential is poised within moments of everything from trains to trams, parks, cafes, restaurants, Coburg Market and cosmopolitan Sydney Road.
