Here it is, the one you have been waiting for. A completed brand new home ready for you to move it and best of all - side access and room for a pool. The seller has taken a job else where and needs to move the property on. As you walk through the door of this quality built 206sqm home, you're met with a lovely neutral palate that leads to the four air conditioned bedrooms all with built in robes, floor to ceiling tiled bathrooms with herring bone feature walls. Make your way into the open plan living and dining area and then into the very functional kitchen complete with walk in pantry, stone bench tops, dishwasher and 600 cooktop. As you head out to the back entertainers delight verandah that stretches the whole width of the house you are faced with a stunning National Park back drop which won't be built out. Located on a 657sqm block in a family friendly cal-de-sac that backs onto parkland, Whitsunday Lakes offers families a cracking location. Minutes from downtown Cannonvale, Airlie Beach Main Street and Lagoon and multiple boat ramps you couldn't ask for more.
