New to the market in a quiet street, this lovely house is looking for a family to call it home. Being less than twenty minutes from Derby bike tracks and twenty five minutes from Scottsdale, this property is definitely in a great location. Plenty of outside work has already been done, with outdoor weather boards, roof and outside cement repaired and painted. When you move in you can restyle the interior to however you choose. The rooms are extremely spacious. The gardens are gorgeous and will be a sea of colour by spring time, giving you a fantastic outlook from your outdoor entertaining area. The ground itself is very fertile, which has allowed the current owner to grow fruit trees in abundance such as, apricots, blueberries, plums, apples, figs, currants, raspberries and blackberries. There are also vegetable patches, several nut trees and an avocado tree on the property.
