It's a rare opportunity in this day and age that you can purchase a home that has all of the big ticket items completed for you and yet still allows opportunity to spend little to increase the value dramatically. This home offers that and is located in a popular central position with all updates completed internally to a very nice standard. It's really just your imagination needed for the yard. It's set up perfectly for an entertainer's paradise, and the general rule of thumb for land improvement is every dollar spent can double your money immediately. The original design of this home is completely different to the others of the same era in this street also, so it is always going to stand out. Make the decision to inspect if you are searching for a three-bedroom home that offers a brand new bathroom, kitchen, lighting, laundry, tiling, paint, and cabinetry/storage as well as a low-maintenance exterior so that there is no burden there either. The undercover carport has already been used as an area for entertaining and is benefitted by external heating. There is also a project to be cherished with the external workshop being dry and solid but needing some fit out. Is this the man shed, games room and hobby workshop you've been looking for? Enjoying all of these benefits and opportunity will mean that this property won't last long, and therefore I'd urge you to inspect

now. _____ Disclaimer: This information has been carefully compiled and is not intended to be treated as a warranty or promise as to the correctness of the information.
