Looking for the right home that offers comfortable living and in a desirable location then this might just be the one for you. This well-presented low maintenance three-bedroom brick home with an easy to maintain garden is sure to be popular. Featuring three good size bedrooms all with built in robes, a generous sized dining/lounge room, separate kitchen with new cupboards and St George appliances, recently renovated bathroom and a good-sized laundry. A split system air conditioner in the lounge will take care of all your heating and cooling needs. There is also a single garage as well as a carport and one special bonus is the dual access to the property from two streets. This property would be ideal for retirees, downsizers or investors. Call to arrange your inspection now.
