This lovely home, facing a quiet park, was built by 'In Vogue' to their show home specifications and is certain to impress. Double door entry, solid timber flooring, purpose built theater room, granite bench tops in the kitchen, stainless steel appliances, beautiful en suite, combination of ducted and split system air conditioning, alarm system plus much much more..High ceilings throughout create the impression that you are in a much larger home. Upstairs consists of a huge master bedroom with plenty of windows to take advantage of the park views. Quality carpets and lighting, his and her walk in robes, an en suite with corner bath, shower, double vanity unit and separate toilet. The timber floored passage takes you to two further good size bedrooms, both with built in robes and plenty of windows to enjoy those views over the suburb. The family bathroom contains another bath, shower and sink combination and oozes quality. Downstairs allows the option of a fourth bedroom with built in robes, but is currently used as a massive home office featuring that quality flooring. The purpose built theatre room behind it's double door entry and offers easy access to a separate powder room for downstairs convenience. There is a good size laundry and past under stair storage, towards the open plan kitchen and dining areas. This chef's delight kitchen offers plenty of storage, granite bench tops, quality tiling, double sink, dishwasher, good size fridge recess, and plenty of natural light. Access to the outside entertaining area is via multiple sliding doors. The under roof patio is decked and offers covered access to the large double garage with electrical and water outlets. There's even a loft hatch allowing access to storage space. There is a excellent combination of pavers, tiles and poured limestone to create a secluded and different entertaining or private relaxing space. Containing a water feature and pizza oven, gas and electricity points, it's all neatly contained under an additional patio. There's a shed and plenty of additional outside storage. This design and positioning on the block makes it low maintenance beach side living at it's best and you simply have to move in!
