This recently renovated cottage is a lovely home that features two decently sized bedrooms and a good lounge area, ideal for spending quality time with family and friends. The well-appointed kitchen is equipped with everything you need for cooking, and there's also a separate meals area. You can be assured comfort all year round with the heating and cooling system, as well as the split system. To top it off, the decked entertaining area and one carport add to the charm of this beautiful home.
