Positioned near the end of a quiet no-through road and located within easy walking distance of central Kingston, this large family home enjoys central convenience and impressive mountain views. The two-storey, 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom brick home features open plan kitchen, living & dining and includes an additional lounge or rumpus area, offering versatility and extra space. The upstairs area is the master suite, with a large bedroom space, walk-in robe, ensuite and a door opening out on to a small balcony with lovely views of Mount Wellington. The 3 downstairs bedrooms all include built-in wardrobes and the main bathroom includes a separate bath & shower. The home sits on a low maintenance 644m² near-level lot with a garden shed and a partially-covered patio & courtyard area. Comfortable living on offer for a family and also good potential as an investment. Close to nearby shopping centres, supermarkets, parks, schools and bus stops. And just 5 minutes from nearby Kingston Beach with its popular cafes & restaurants. Enjoy all that the area and its surrounds have to offer. Approximately 15 minutes to Hobart.
