Beaconsfield Upper features high on the list of families seeking an alternative to the customary urban life. A sprawling yet cohesive 'village' environment offers connection to nature, varied outdoor opportunities, be it at the local pony club, a round of golf or simply to become part of a community that cares! Number 5 Sugarloaf Road is the perfect family package. A home with room to accommodate the entire family comfortably, with four living areas offering separation when desired and all the important space to come together and enjoy quality time. Comprising of four bedrooms, main featuring an ensuite including a spa, study/music room and a well-equipped kitchen that extends to a light filled family room and the extensive outdoor entertainment space. From here you step out to an inground solar heated pool, championship sized tennis court and a quirky lofted workshop with additional basement/store. Further complimented by, beautiful solid timber flooring, refrigerated air-conditioning, CCTV security, stunning fireplace and complete with a double garage plus a double carport each serviced by separate driveways - ensuring plenty of parking and space for additional vehicles. An enchanting offering by day or night enveloped in an acre of beautiful gardens and lawns - there's even a small winter creek that runs across the foot of the property! Located just moments from Beaconsfield Upper itself and just a 10-minute drive to Berwick and Beaconsfield Villages, where quality schooling, shopping and everything else you could want/need is within easy reach. A truly outstanding opportunity for those seeking an incredible lifestyle in a convenient 'Rural' environment!
