Welcome to 5 Summer Street in Beautiful Deception Bay, where you'll find timber floors in the living, dining, and kitchen, adding a touch of natural beauty to these rooms. This home boasts a practical and functional kitchen design, along with two bathrooms, as well as two inviting timber decks to enjoy your morning coffee while overlooking the front yard. The ground floor unveils a roomy rumpus area, a comfortable living space, and a bathroom that seamlessly integrates with your daily lifestyle, perfect for the extended family. Property highlights include three generously sized bedrooms upstairs, accompanied by another bathroom and a spacious layout. In addition, a sizable 6x3-meter shed is conveniently located up the driveway, providing ample storage space for your needs. The location of 5 Summer Street is a true gem, just a short 2-minute walk to the waterfront, charming cafes, and an array of shops. Both public and private schools are within easy reach, and public transport options are conveniently available right on the street. The local library, parks, and playgrounds are just a few doors away, while the Rothwell train station is a mere 10 minutes' drive, with easy access to the Bruce Highway for commuting to the city or the Sunshine Coast. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to be the first to explore this exceptional and rare find!
