Prepare to be transported back in time to an era where craftsmanship and attention to detail reigned supreme. This quintessential Australian mid-century home is a rare gem that embodies the true essence of timeless architecture. Built with love in the 1950s by the esteemed and renowned builder, Tasmania's Hall of Fame Inductee, Noel Clarke. Radiating charm from every corner, this home was originally crafted as a sanctuary for the Clarke family, making it a truly unique and impressive residence. Set amidst mature gardens and flourishing trees on an elevated corner allotment, this property offers a serene and picturesque setting that soothes the soul. The location couldn't be more perfect, just a stone's throw away from shops, cafes, schools, parks, and the esteemed Calvary hospital, ensuring convenient, everyday family living. Step inside, and you'll be greeted by the solid foundation of concrete floors on both levels, a hallmark of mid-century design. As you explore further, you'll be captivated by the exquisite joinery throughout, which enhances the home's inspiring mid-century aesthetic. The grand entrance opens up to a spacious office, while a self-contained area boasts a kitchenette, a cozy living room with an inbuilt wood heater, a comfortable double bedroom, and a well-appointed bathroom, perfect for accommodating guests or creating a private retreat. Ascending to the upper level, you'll find three generously-sized bedrooms, a bathroom, and a powder room. The spacious kitchen and breakfast nook with cozy window seating set the scene for delightful family meals. The formal lounge and dining area stretch across the entire front of the home, adorned with high ceilings and exposed beams that create a sense of grandeur. Embrace the natural light that pours in through the floor-to-ceiling windowpanes, illuminating every corner of the space. On cooler evenings, curl up with a book by the cozy gas log fire and enjoy the captivating views through the full-length balcony that opens up to sweeping vistas of the beautiful surroundings. Venture to the rear of the house, where a peaceful courtyard awaits you, complete with beautiful stone retaining walls and immaculately manicured, easy-to-care-for gardens, providing a private oasis to unwind and enjoy the outdoors. With ample parking space, including an internal garage, off street parking at the front and side of the home, practicality meeting your family's needs. Immaculately presented, this home is a true gem that will capture the hearts of even the most discerning house hunters. Don't miss the opportunity to own this exquisite time capsule of elegance, where quality craftsmanship and mid-century charm unite to create an extraordinary living experience. Embark on a journey through time, discovering the true essence of mid-century living in this charming home.
