If you're looking for a tree change, some peace and quiet, space for a horse or perhaps a hobby farm then this property may be just what you are looking for! Nestled on a private 6.94 acres surrounded by farmland stacked with lifestyle advantages. Featuring a cottage style 2-bedroom highest home with front veranda at the entry, high ceilings, recently painted inside and out with new carpets in the bedrooms. Lounge room at the entry with a spacious master suite which enjoys a walk-in robe and ensuite. The kitchen has just had new oven and ceramic cook top installed whilst the main bathroom features both shower & bathtub. Externally the property enjoys a single lock-up garage and an old stable. The house yard has been fenced ideal for children & pets. Plus, because the properties back boundary runs alongside the Lockyer Creek this property also has the benefit of a water license which is perfect for the avid gardener or hobby farmer. This property is a rare find offering a multitude of opportunities. Contact Taurie to arrange your inspection today!
