Boasting every ingredient for an idyllic lifestyle, this attractive family home on 939 sqm approx. showcases an abundance of space in a treasured, low-traffic court. A successful combination of formal and informal living zones ensures exciting entertaining on any scale. Enjoying peaceful ambience, front garden views filter into the lounge room. The neighbouring dining room is a separate space that offers outstanding versatility as a second living zone or an office. Revel in the easy indoor/outdoor interaction between the large kitchen, meals/living room and the generous covered alfresco, streaming out to a lush-green lawn with lovely garden edging. A perfect four bedroom, two bathroom configuration that includes a ground floor bedroom, powder room, upstairs study alcove and a master bedroom with walk-in robe and ensuite, other highlights include new carpet, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, security and a double garage. With separate access for a boat or caravan, the substantial backyard offers plenty of space for a potential granny flat or subdivision (STCA). Focused on family success, enjoy living near Tinternvale Primary School, Tintern Grammar, Eastfield Village eateries, vibrant Ringwood East Village, Paul's IGA and the train station.
