

5 Wood Street, Lancelin, WA 6044

Sold House

Thursday, 30 November 2023

5 Wood Street, Lancelin, WA 6044

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 6

Area: 658 m2

Type: House

Denise Howe

0409687018

Contact agent

Immerse your senses within "Salty Towers", fresh air, beautiful views and the sound of the ocean lapping in the background. A short stroll to the beach, sand dunes and restaurant. The home has beautiful views of Lancelin Island, with a wrap-around balcony on the first level. Inside, there are windows on each side providing ocean views, an open plan living, dining, and kitchen area with ample storage and a separate pantry. The master bedroom is spacious and includes a walk-in wardrobe, ensuite with a spa, and a separate toilet. The ground level features a living area with a kitchenette, two bedrooms, a separate laundry, WC and a bathroom. Lancelin is a coastal town with various amenities such as cafes, restaurants, a tavern, hotel, bakery, and general stores. It is conveniently located within a one-hour drive to the Northern suburbs and approximately 1.5 hours drive to the airport. School bus services, recycling stations, and a medical center are also available in Lancelin. Other features; Split system Air-conditioning Double garage Fully reticulated Solar panels Garden Shed Parking area for the boat Lancelin is a favourable coastal town within 1 hours drive from the end of Mitchell Freeway, approximately 1.5 hours drive to the airport. School bus services, recycling stations and Medical Centre. With café's, restaurants, tavern, hotel, bakehouse and general stores.