Welcome to Adamstown Heights, where culture, vibrant scenery, and cozy residences come together to create the perfect urban retreat! Embrace the essence of this vibrant Newcastle suburb as you step into a remarkable city home, rich with character and convenience, whilst surrounded by a picturesque leafy oasis. Stepping up to the home you will be pleased to see beautiful trees including everyone's favourite Jacaranda framing the facade of this charming home. You will also see side access to the rear of the home, and garaging, all of which resides on a generously sized block for the area. Moving inside the home, you will find a large living space accompanied by bedrooms one and two, and with its northerly facing aspect, you will find generous natural lighting. With multiple living spaces thoughtfully designed for relaxation and entertainment, you'll have the freedom to create the perfect environment for every occasion. The master bathroom boasts two way access, functionally doubling as an ensuite. The rear living space flows through to a covered outdoor entertaining area and garden, perfect for entertaining and hosting pets or little ones. Escape the bustle of the city with our spacious block, providing a retreat amidst the vibrant urban landscape. The home provides cosy living, while not sacrificing side access, space, and convenient travel to everything Newcastle City has to offer.
