Ideally located in a quiet cul de sac, this 1995 built three bedroom brick home offers plenty to love. Set on almost 900 square metres of land, this home has loads of space and offers multiple outbuildings, perfect for those with hobbies or requirements for extra storage. Equipped with solar panels, this home offers a sustainable option and for those with a green thumb, there is loads of space for veggies and fruit trees, adding to the eco and wallet friendly living. Situated within walking distance to Sorell township, you'll have easy access to shops, cafes, and essential services. The local school is just over the back fence, making this an ideal location for families. With an affordable entry level price, why keep renting when in no time at all you could call this home your own. The home has an open plan kitchen living dining space and has benefitted from a recent bathroom upgrade. There is a heat pump to keep you warm and cosy in the cooler weather and the flooring was replaced a couple of years ago. There is a large covered outdoor patio and a separate studio, big enough to use as a rumpus, media room or work from home space that is also warmed by a convenient heat pump. So, if you are looking for a comfortable and conveniently located 3 bedroom, call me, Donna Wooley of Homelands Property today to arrange your inspection.
