Nestled in a quiet street of Dundowran Beach and backing on to a beautiful nature reserve is 50-54 Vine Forest Drive. The layout of this family home is perfect for comfortable living. With four generously sized bedrooms and two spacious living areas, there's plenty of space for everyone to spread out and enjoy and for family gatherings. The open-plan kitchen, with its ample storage, not only offers functionality but also provides a lovely view of the backyard and pool, making it a focal point for both cooking and socializing. This is a home designed with both practicality and enjoyment in mind. The outdoor space captures privacy, relaxation and nature perfectly. The in-ground pool, surrounded by palms, adds a touch of luxury. With ample room for enjoyment, including sheds and double side access, there's plenty of potential for outdoor activities. It's wonderful to imagine spending time in such a serene setting, whether lounging by the pool or engaging in hobbies in the spacious yard. The lush green surroundings and proximity to the beach truly offer a connection to nature that's hard to beat. Being nestled in Dundowran Beach means residents can enjoy the tranquility of coastal living while still having easy access to local shops and amenities. Plus, the convenience of being just a short drive from the centre of Hervey Bay adds to the appeal, providing the best of both worlds – a serene residential retreat with urban conveniences within reach. It sounds like an ideal location for those seeking a balanced lifestyle by the beach. To arrange a private inspection, contact Ash today - 0418 986 867
