Luxurious Lifestyle Living or Ideal Investment

Positioned in the modern and stunning Cello Residences in the vibrant Stones Corner precinct, this well-appointed, flow-through apartment is the perfect home for buyers searching for a home or an investment in a thriving suburb, with access to exceptional on-site amenities.

As you enter the apartment, open-plan living with cooling breezes immediately welcomes you. A stunning kitchen, as well as the spacious living and dining area flow through the centre of the apartment and open out onto a private balcony which is large enough to accommodate both outdoor dining and additional seating.

Making the most of its clean lines, the large and contemporary kitchen features an abundance of storage including a walk-in pantry, an array of drawers and overhead cupboards.

The master bedroom is large enough to accommodate a king-sized bed whilst still providing generous storage space. The master is complete with a lavish ensuite designed with clean lines and features. The luxuries of this bedroom continue, with your own access to the spacious balcony.
