Individually titled and able to be enjoyed entirely independently from number 52 Chandler Street, this exceptional residence also offers the amazing ability to be part of a unique multi-generational family address. A single level property created and completed with an evident emphasis on style, its bright living/dining dimensions feature superb chevron patterned timber floors that flow to a north-facing outdoor backdrop. An open-plan kitchen conveys distinctive attention to detail that's matched by the beauty of the fully-tiled bathroom that serves the welcoming double bedroom. The opportunity to capture this outstanding single level residence, to be sold separately, is complemented by the option to also acquire the adjoining dual level residence – allowing for a growing family and the grandparents generation to share a spectacular setting. Alternatively, these spaces can simply provide perfect entry level proportions, desirable downsizing dimensions or rewarding investment performance in an ideal location.
