Nestled in a serene neighbourhood at the intersection of Corella Road and Wray Cove, this impeccably constructed brown-brick residence is poised for its next chapter. Boasting three bedrooms adorned with built-in robes, a central bathroom, spacious lounge, well-appointed kitchen, dining area, generously sized remote-controlled garage, and a convenient side carport, this home offers both comfort and functionality. Resting on concrete stumps, this property underwent a partial renovation a few years ago, which included a meticulous paint job, a revamped bathroom, installation of new gutters, and the restoration of its floorboards to their former glory. Additional amenities include ducted central heating, split system heating and cooling for personalised climate control, an alarm system, secure roller shutters, and a low-maintenance garden. Situated within walking distance to The Avenue Shopping Centre and bus stops, 50 Corella Road also offers excellent accessibility to the Western Ring Road, enhancing its appeal further.
