This generous family home positioned in a prestigious Invermay Park locale close to the Midlands Golf Course offers a unique private setting amongst stunning grounds and gardens. Well setback from the private court, this quality home offers a wonderful standard of living with a spacious open plan kitchen, meals and living area as well as separate formal living area and games room. The kitchen area is an entertainers dream with quality appliances, island bench and walk in pantry. The dining area features a large bay window which takes in views of the beautiful gardens. There are five large bedrooms including the master with large bay window, WIR and en-suite. Each of the bedrooms feature split systems for cooling and there is central heating throughout the home. In addition to the three living zones downstairs there is a fourth living space on the top floor perfect as a rumpus or study area. There are an additional two bathrooms upstairs as well as a powder room on the ground level. Outside is a glorious outdoor entertaining area in which you can take in the sprawling grounds and gardens. There are numerous fruit trees, vegetable gardens and large established trees. The gardens are serviced by two substantial water tanks. The home offers a double lock up garage with workshop space, good storage and auto door. There is ample room for trailers and caravans on the property as well as additional off-street parking. This home is a delight to inspect and provides a rare opportunity to secure a family home in a prime location.
