FOR SALE

We are delighted to introduce a meticulously maintained residence at 50 Goss Drive, Collingwood Park, offering a harmonious blend of contemporary style and comfortable living. This impressive property is characterised by its thoughtful renovations, modern features, and an array of amenities designed for a family-centric lifestyle. Welcoming you to the home is a charming front timber deck, creating a warm and inviting entrance. The residence exudes a modern aesthetic with laminate flooring seamlessly flowing through every room, providing both durability and visual appeal. The property features four bedrooms, providing ample space for a growing family or accommodating guests. Throughout the home, find ceiling fans, blinds, and security screens, contributing to a comfortable and secure living environment. The centrally located two-way bathroom adds a touch of practicality, providing easy access from both the master bedroom and the hallway. The entire residence has been recently painted, adding a fresh and modern feel to the interior. The heart of the home has been transformed into a culinary masterpiece, featuring stone bench tops, soft-close doors and drawers, a breakfast bar, and ample cabinet space—ideal for both cooking enthusiasts and those who appreciate modern design. The rear of the property boasts a generous deck with a large pergola and ceiling fan, offering a perfect outdoor space for family gatherings, entertaining guests, or simply enjoying the serene backyard, with the added bonus of a 6.6 kW solar system, this home has plenty to offer! The property ensures convenience with a two-car accommodation featuring an electric garage door for easy access and added security. Privacy and safety are paramount, with a fully fenced yard providing a secure environment for children and pets to play. 50 Goss Drive stands as a testament to quality living, offering a contemporary and well-appointed home that caters to the needs of a modern family.
