The allotment attracts attention & the family friendly locale provides exceptional possibilities complemented by the surrounding amenities offering an outstanding lifestyle – from every perspective this is one of Elsternwick’s most appealing opportunities. Set on a magnificent block of 484m²* perfect for future plans & permits to be approved (STCA). This golden opportunity illustrates a perfect vision by making the most of proximity to schools such as Caulfield Primary school, Glen Eira college, a number of private schools in Wesley College & The Japanese school of Melbourne, a gentle walk to Glen Huntly road shopping strips, parks in every direction, transport & a plethora of lifestyle conveniences. A rare chance to define the future, then deliver it in a location with every family amenity promising huge rewards in a position of significant status. *Approximate Title Dimensions.
