Occupying an elevated position to capture views across Orierton Lagoon, this light filled family home provides relaxed living in a sought after suburb. With abundant sunshine and an impressive outlook, the inviting living area serves as a comfortable space to relax in. The adjacent dining room leads through to the kitchen, which is equipped with ample storage and bench space. Water views from this room make for an enjoyable place to prepare meals. The master bedroom is generously proportioned with an ensuite bathroom and walk in robe. Two further bedrooms, each with built in robes, are serviced by a central family bathroom. Outside, the home continues to impress. The covered patio, fantastic for outdoor entertaining, overlooks a low maintenance garden filled with colourful flowers and mature trees. A pergola provides a pleasant area to sit and enjoy the peaceful surrounds. Under the house, there is a large storage area, which could house a workshop if desired. Ample off street parking can be found in the driveway, which includes a single carport. The well-maintained home has excellent bones and enormous potential and purchasers with foresight will realise the rewards of investing in this location just 25 minutes from Hobart's CBD and under 10 minutes from the Sorell and Cambridge Park shopping complexes. This truly is an exceptional opportunity to secure a much loved family home in an excellent location.
