Calling all Chippies, Trades People, Owner Builders!

Unexpected, potential, 'what a view', quirky, personality.... All these things will spring to mind when you enter one of the most unique properties on the market today!

The property is incomplete and unfinished and is screaming for someone to take the home from 'oh...' to 'oh my!'.

All the hard work is done and just needs finishing. Ideal for an owner builder, chippie, trades person or someone who is looking for a home with massive personality and potential in one of the best streets in Esk with amazing views.

Features you'll love:

6 hexagonal modules with an open air atrium in the centre

2 ha of elevated land - a large amount of which is usable

Amazing views

One of the best streets in Esk

Incomplete project waiting to be finished

Vaulted ceilings

Tranquil area, featuring abundant wildlife in a koala corridor

Perfect getaway or family home

Whether you are looking for your next project, renovation or dream home you cannot rule out 50 Lakeview Drive. Don't let it be the home you drive past in the future, seeing the final finished product saying to yourself "We should have bought the home when we had the chance" as there will not be another like it.
