$289,000 to $299,000

This magnificent log cabin on the Yorke Peninsula, in the coastal town, The Pines has just come on the market. It is on a large block 1434m², so plenty of room for all your cars, boats or even caravan. It has shedding, and a rustic holiday feel in the interior of the house. It is in a beautiful location on the lower end of the peninsula, and is close to all this area has to offer, stunning beaches, national parks and country towns everywhere on the peninsula. With the popularity of this area, this property would make a great investment, as a rental, or even a forever home or Airbnb. With established trees and gardens, and an easily accessible driveway, it has just what you would want in a holiday home. This place has a lot to offer and won't be around for long. It is a coastal oasis, what an opportunity to make it yours. Call Andrew today, to make it yours, on 0416 165 545 Future Realty SA. RLA 323567
