Enjoy the warm weather in your very own coastal escape, situated in the quiet town of Pioneer Bay with Phillip Island just down the road, this quaint two bedroom home has a generously sized bedroom that has it's very own sun room that could double as a study or nursery. Other features include a central family sized bathroom, open plan kitchen, living and meals area, split system air conditioning and a covered front deck. The extended single carport offers loads of off street parking and a large low maintenance backyard so you can spend your evenings taking in the sea breeze.* Please note open for inspections are subject to be cancelled or changed without notice and photo identification is required on entry.
