Similar to a luxurious resort, the village's streets are lined with beautifully manicured gardens and the central community centre is stylish and elegant. Wellington Manor Retirement Village's delightful community centre sits at the heart of the village and offers a welcoming and refined space for residents to gather. Inside there is a reception lobby, resident-run bar, lounge, library, billiards room, arts and crafts room, hairdresser, auditorium/multipurpose space and a commercial kitchen which is used for village functions. Wellington Manor also boasts a heated indoor pool and spa as well as a large croquet green, putting green, 'men's shed', gymnasium and an undercover barbeque/dining area. The village also has its own community garden which has been cultivated by residents and is abundant with fruit, vegetables and flowers. Don't miss out!
