Capturing a glittery city skyline above verdant parkland vistas, this two-bedroom apartment luxuriates in seductive style with lavish indoor-outdoor enjoyment. A peaceful sanctuary with every indulgence at its door, the home is situated within paces of the local swimming pool, a short stroll to the new Arden Street train station (under construction), Errol Street's cafés, restaurants, and lively bars, Queen Victoria Market, prestigious universities, hospitals, transport, and the endless delights of the CBD. Cocooned in quiet double-glazed comfort, the home echoes its verdant natural surrounds amid exquisite finishes of timber, marble, and stone. Full-length windows capture the spectacular outlooks from a spacious living and dining domain, integrating with a sheltered balcony and a stunning hostess kitchen with a full array of Miele appliances. Two robed bedrooms are serviced by two chic bathrooms, including a balcony and ensuite to the main bedroom, finishing the home with secure basement parking and storage cage. Pampering residents with amenity, this luxe building offers a secure mail room, two lifts, and a spectacular entertainer's barbecue terrace with city views.
