$580,000 - $620,000

107 Cambridge, a luxury offering inspired by New York's infamous meat-packing district. A bouquet apartment complex designed by the ever-talented Elenberg Fraser and brought to life by prominent property developer Gurner. 107 Cambridge St is one of the last remaining developments to be completed within the historic 'Foy and Gibson' precinct. This 2-bedroom/1-bathroom apartment has finishes you would only find in a one-off bespoke custom build. Apartments feature:

- Beautiful open and light filled living areas and kitchen
- Kitchen and bathroom equipped with metallic and bronze tapware
- Gas burner cooktops and stainless steel appliances
- Spacious bedrooms
- Built-in wardrobes with mirror sliding doors
- Wooden floorboards throughout living with shade privacy blinds
- Plush carpet in the bedrooms with blackout blinds
- Spacious balcony
- Car space
- Separate Storage

Beyond the apartment space, the ground floor retail space is occupied by Project49, a delicious café at your doorstep. Only a short walk to the popular Smith Street.
