Pelican Waters has long been celebrated as Queensland's premier waterfront destination, offering an exceptional lifestyle with a variety of residential home sites. This includes coveted properties with ocean access and stunning water views on the Sunshine Coast. The sheer stature of this two-storey home immediately demands attention even on a narrow block. The Roseville features a great sized kitchen, plenty of storage with convenient access to the laundry. Also located downstairs are the generous family and dining areas but the addition of second outdoor area means there is plenty of space for everyone.
